

“FOR AS IN ADAM ALL DIE, EVEN SO IN CHRIST SHALL ALL BE MADE ALIVE” (I Corinthians 15:22).

God killed animals to clothe Adam and Eve to show them that “atonement” (or covering) for sin could only be provided by God through the shedding of innocent blood. And God gave Adam and Eve hope for fallen mankind through the promised coming of Jesus, the “Seed of the woman” (Genesis 3:15). Jesus’ innocent blood was shed as the final sacrifice for sin—that those who turn to Him as Savior might have eternal life. Jesus “bruised the head” of “that old serpent called the Devil,” and set us free from sin’s bondage.
